A Man Wooes His Own Daughter and nearly Marries Her.

The Cleveland Herald records the following romance in real life, which, for startling interest almost surpasses the daring conception of the novelist

About seventeen or, eighteen years since, a young man, an American, resided in the city of Rochester N. Y. There he wooed and won a young and blooming Germain maiden Shortly after his marriage he became acquainted with some other young men, who "lived fast," and thus was thrown sometimes among doubtful company. Some months after marriage a forgery was committed, and suspicions pointing strongly at him, a warrant was issued for his arrest. He escaped, and for years nothing more was heard of him. Sometime afterwards his innocence of the crime was discovered by the confession of the guilty person.

Three months after the disapperace of her husband, the young wife gave birth to a girl. By her own efforts and the assistance of kind friends, the mother was enabled to support herself and her child for three years, when she died, and the little girl was left an orphan.—A German family living in the neighborhood, took the child to their home and adopted it as their own. About ten years since they came to this city with the intention of settling here, but soon after their arrival, received letters that led to their return to the old country.—The girl, now obout seven years of age, was left in this city with a German family named Klengenheifer, the foster parents hoping that the father would appear some day to claim her. With this family she lived to the present time, and has grown to a handsome young lady of some sixteen or seventeen summers.

The father, on leaving Rochester, had left for South America, and led a roving life among the different countries of the Southern continent. Eventually he turned up in Sonora, having been attracted thither by the reported richness of its mines. Being naturally of a restless disposition, he took part in the domestic troubles of the State, and was engaged in the Liberal side in several revolutionary movements. When the regular Governor, Gavalando, obtained the mastery, our American adventurer was compelled to fly for his life and take refuge in the United States territory.

After all his wanderings and adventures, he became anxious to see his wife once more if still alive, and to learn something of what had transpired after his flight. He was still ignorant of the fact that his innocence had been established, and knew nothing of the existence of a daughter. Travelling under an assumed name, and trusting to the effect of years and hardships to conceal his identity, he set out for New York State.

About six weeks ago he came to this city on his way to Rochester, intending to remain two or three days. He fell in with Mr. Klengenhicfer, and, as the latter had a brother in Sonora, an acquaintance sprang up between them, which led to Mr. K. inviting his new acquaintance to his house on Kinsman street. Here he met with the young lady, who bore the name of her foster parents, and he became at once deeply interested in her. Instead of proceeding at once to Rochester, he remained in Cleveland—fascinated by the charms of the young lady. Having met some Rochester people, who did not recognize him and learned that his wife had died years since, he abandoned his idea of visiting Rochester, and paid assidious attention to the young lady who had so smitten him, the result was that he offered her his hand—still under the assumed name he had borne for years—and was accepted. The marriage was fixed for Monday evening last.

On Sunday evening the intended bridegroom was talking with the intended bride when his attention was attracted to a locket which she wore. His curiosity was gratified by the locket being opened, and a miniature portrait of a lady was revealed. He turned pale at seeing it, and could scarcely speak. It was the portrait of his wife, taken about a year before death.—Further inquiries disclosed the fact that it was the portrait of the young lady's mother, and that the man had been almost miraculously saved from the horrible crime of marrying his own daughter.

We suppress the names of the parties in this extraordinary transaction, out of respect to the feeling of the young lady. The father and daughter, unable to remain in a place containing such cruel recollections, left yesterday for a Western State.

CRYSTAL HYMN.

Majestic sweetness sits enthroned,
Upon the Saviour's brow,
His head with radiant glories crowned,
His lips with grace o'erflow.

He saw me plunged in deep distress,
And flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

No mortal can with him compare,
Among the sons of men,
Fairer is he than all the fair,
Who fill the heavenly train.

To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
And saves me from the grave.

School Matters.

Duties of Parents and Teachers.

These duties are various and weighty, and consequent upon the relation of parent and child, teacher and pupil.

Now, how are we to determine what these duties are? Certainly not by referring to any speculative theories which may have had their origin in the hot bed of some sickly imagination, but by inquiring into the object to be accomplished by the parent and teacher, and what is the nature and destiny of the being committed wholly to their guidance and discipline. Thus, the duties of a physician are obvious. The object had in view is the restoration of the human system, when diseased, to perfect health, or the mitigation of pain, and the palliation of disease, by the use of medicine and surgery.

Hence, his first duty is to make himself acquainted with the structure of the human system—with the functions of the several parts, and the physiological laws pertaining to each. Secondly, he should understand the pathology of the various diseases to which the human body is subject. Thirdly, he should fully acquaint himself with the properties and nature of the various medicines which have been found to have a salutary influence in assisting diseased nature to regain her former vigor and health. Lastly, but not least, his duty requires him as an intelligent physician, when called to see a patient, to carefully examine the symptoms of the disease, ascertain, if possible, what physiological laws have been violated, what organs do not perform their functions properly, and then, in view that he is dealing with life and death, his duty requires him as an honest man, to prescribe such medicine as he may deem best suited to bring about a state of perfect health to the patient, and, if necessary to that end, he will not withhold the blister, the lancet, the scarifier or the probing knife, though it may be ever so painful to the patient, and most disagreeable to himself. No, he will not hesitate to amputate the diseased member, the hand, the limb—or even to pluck out the eye, if thereby he may save life.

Without further preliminaries, we may first inquire what are some of the duties of parents? We may, in answer to this question, ask, what is it to be a parent? To be a parent is to be placed solely in charge of a being, (when first brought into the world) the most ignorant, dependent and helpless of all the animal species. This being is possessed of a physical organism, subject to a thousand diseases, pain and premature death, all of which growing out of the violation of the laws of its being, under which a wise and beneficent Creator has placed it. This same being is also endowed with an immortal, moral and intelligent principle—a soul, capable of endless progression in knowledge and virtue, of ineffable joy and happiness, or of indescribable degradation and misery, even in this life, and exposed to a life of eternal wretchedness and misery in a future state of existence, with a nature naturally indisposed to those very acts that bring both physical and moral disease, suffering and death.

Now, in view of the powers, nature and destiny of this being, we come to the education of such a being includes all those influences and disciplines by which its faculties are unfolded and perfected. It is that agency that takes the helpless and pleading infant from the hands of its Creator, and apprehending its entire nature, tempts it forth, now by austere, and now by kindly influences and disciplines, and thus moulds it at last into the image of a perfect man, armed at all points, to use the body, nature and life for its growth and renewal, and to hold dominion over the fluctuating things of the outward. It seeks to realize in the soul the image of the Creator. Its end is a perfect man. Its aim through every stage of influence, is self-renewal. The body, nature and life are its instruments and materials; Jesus is its worthiest ideal; Christianity its purest organ; the Gospels are its fullest text book; genius is its inspiration; holiness its law; temperance its discipline; immortality its reward. Now, if this be the work of parents, (which it undoubtedly is,) well may they exclaim, "who then is sufficient for these things."

But, fearful as the obligations of parents may be, they must meet them. There is no such thing as wholly transferring these duties to others. The child is given directly by God to the guidance and discipline of the parents, and if its education is neglected, and the child becomes reckless and miserable in this life, and finally an outcast from heaven and happiness, the parents are responsible for this great aberration from the laws of rectitude and right.—The injunction of heaven is, "Train up a child in the way it should go, and when it is old it will not depart from it."

Now, this training or education begins when the little one first opens its eyes to the light—to look upon the visage of that mother that gave it birth. It soon learns to trace the stern and contracted features of that mother's face, and ere a decade of weeks has passed away, her angry frown will bring tears to the helpless child's eyes. How soon does it learn to distinguish between the soft, winning voice of love, and the harsh and repulsive tone of petulence and anger?

Thus early in life is the education and discipline of the child begun, and, as man is a progressive being, his faculties are capable of an indefinite expansion. His tuition, therefore, cannot be supposed to terminate at any period of his terrestrial existence, but is carried on through every stage of life, from the cradle to the grave, and when he closes his eyes in death, and bids a last adieu to everything here below, he passes into a more permanent and expansive state of existence, where his education will likewise be progressive, and where intelligences of a higher order may be his instructors. Then, the education he received in this transitory scene, if it was properly conducted, will found the ground work of all his future progression in knowledge and virtue, throughout the succeeding periods of eternity. More anon. G. S.

The Superintendent and the Last Institute.

Mr. OVER:—An article published in the Inquirer by the County Superintendent, reflected discredit on upon those teachers who were not in attendance at the County Institute, and requires some attention at our hands.—We, as teachers of Middle Woodberry Township, feel as much interest in self-improvement, Teachers' Institutes and the rise and progress of our Educational system, as any set of teachers in the county, though we did not attend the Institute. We had our reasons for not attending.

The reason why we did not attend the County Institute was, that there was not an iota of inducement held out, either upon the part of the Superintendent, or upon the part of the Directors. When the present term of the Common Schools opened we met in Woodbury, and organized a Teachers' Institute, and that with the most promising prospects; every teacher exerting himself to his utmost, to bring about the most beneficial results in the progress of our educational system; but alas! a majority of our directors refused to grant us permission to hold any educational meetings in any one of the school rooms under whatever form we may have desired to form them. Yes, they snatched them from our hands, and put a final stop to all educational associations in our township. However, I am sure that the teachers in this part of the County are doing their duty manfully, and especially under the unfavorable circumstances under which we are laboring, and the term "not live teachers" is certainly not applicable to us. Of the twelve schools in our township, not a single school has been regularly visited by any of the Directors, or scarce by anybody else.

We have been looking for the Superintendent to visit our schools, and to deliver us lectures upon the Art of Teaching, a duty devolving upon the Superintendent, according to law, and as yet, he has not fulfilled his obligatory duty, nor has he as much as held regular correspondence with either the Teachers or the Directors, upon the all important subject of "school matters;" therefore, is it to be expected that we, who labor for the paltry sum of twenty to twenty-four dollars per month, will spend time and money, and go twenty miles to attend an Institute for the benefit of two days' instruction? No! emphatically no! Not that we are opposed to Teachers' Institutes, but for the want of proper encouragement. Should it be Mr. Heckerman's "good fortune to serve another term as County Superintendent," I hope he will more efficiently attend to his duty, and imitate the labor of the Superintendents of our neighboring counties. Mr. Dean, of Blair County, has, during his term of the Superintendency, lectured day after day, and night after night; yes, traversed the county from one end to the other, and reared up edifices of learning, and now his praises are sung around the fireside of every true friend of education, not only in Blair County, but in the neighboring counties, and such a man we want for the next term of the Superintendency, and such a man is J. R. Durborrow, the author of "School Matters," who has labored, as no other man in Bedford County has labored, for the advancement of education, and who, if elected Superintendent, will spare no pains to raise the cause of education to its wonted position.

Yours, D. D. ESHELMAN.
Woodbury, Feb. 18, 1860.

A poet says that the wind kisses the waves. That, we suppose, is the celebrated 'kiss for a blow,' about which we have heard so much.

What is the difference between Handel and the grinder of a barrel organ? The one was a composer, the other is a discomposer.

The first mistake in public business is going into it.

The Incomprehensibility of God.

All the discoveries of modern science serve to exalt the Diety; but they do not contribute one iota to the explanation of his purposes.—They make him greater, but they do not make him more comprehensible. He is more shrouded in mystery than ever. It is not himself whom we see, it is his workmanship; and every new addition to its grandeur, and to its variety, which philosophy opens to our contemplation, throws our understanding at a greater distance than before from the mind and conception of the sublime Architect. Instead of the God of a single world, we now see him presiding, in all the majesty of his high attributes, over a mighty range of innumerable systems. To our little eye he is wrapt up in most awful mysteriousness; and every new glimpse which astronomy gives us of the Universe, magnifies, to the apprehension of our mind, that impassible barrier which stands between the counsels of his sovereignty and those fugative beings who trust their evanescent hour in the humblest of his mansions. If this invisible Being would only break that mysterious silence in which he has wrapped himself, we feel that a single word from his mouth would be worth a world of darkling speculation. Every new triumph which the mind of man achieves in the field of discovery, binds us more firmly to our Bible; and by the very proportion in which philosophy multiplies the wonders of God, do we prize that book, on which the evidence of history has stamped the character of His authentic communication.—Dr. Chamber.

FUN AT HOME.

Don't be afraid of a little fun at home, good people! Don't shut up your houses, lest the sun should fade your carpets; nor your hearts, lest a hearty laugh should shake down some of the musty old cobwebs there! If you want to ruin your sons, let them think that all mirth and social enjoyment must be left on the threshold when they come home at night.—When once at home is regarded as only a place to eat, drink and sleep in, the work is begun that ends in gambling-houses and reckless degradation. Young people must have fun and relaxation somewhere. If they do not find it at their own hearthstones, it will be sought in other, and perhaps, less profitable places.—Therefore, let the fire burn brightly at night, and make the home nest delightful with all those little arts that parents so perfectly understand. Don't repress the buoyant spirits of your children. Half an hour of merriment round the lamp and firelight of home blots out the remembrance of many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safeguard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright little domestic sanctum.

Colonel Stone, a practicing lawyer, and Dr. Mason, a practising physician, were rival candidates for the Senate, and were stumping the district together. Dr. Mason was a warm advocate for law reform, and, in arguing its necessity, he referred to a certain case in which his competitor had been nonsuited upon some technicality. 'Now,' said Dr. Mason, 'we need to have the law reformed, or Col. Stone is incompetent to bring a suit correctly—he can take either horn of the dilemma.'

Colonel Stone replied: 'Fellow citizens, the Doctor has the advantage of me. When I make a mistake in my profession, he has only to go to the records of the court, and find it and publish it to the world; but when he makes a mistake in his profession, he buries it six feet under ground.'

The people appreciated the lawyer's ready wit, and forgave him the blunder charged upon him for the sake of the clever retort he made at the doctor's expense.

HUNTING IN COUPLES.

This is the business of the Southern Chivalry. Two armed men prowl the streets of Washington in pursuit of one man who is unarmed, and sick beside. This we are to take as an evidence of bravery. This is the method employed to show that Virginians are not afraid. This is proof that when Mr. Hickman said Virginia was frightened by John Brown and his twenty-one confederates, and a cow, that he slandered the State and insulted its citizens. We say that hunting in couples, after the Edmundson and Keitt fashion, is assassination in spirit, in purpose, and will be held and stigmatized as such by all decent men.—N. Y. Tribune.

Sheridan having been asked what wine he liked best, replied, 'The wine of other people.'

It is no wonder that the wind is solemn and mournful; it has "swept the fields of mortality' for a hundred centuries.

The sheep in the meadow, and the axe in the forest, alike contribute their 'chops' for the benefit of man.

At a town meeting in Ireland, it was recently voted 'that all persons in the town owning dogs shall be muzzled.

The man who was hemmed in by a crowd, has been troubled with a stitch in his side ever since.

A negro undergoing an examination, when asked if his master was a Christian, replied:—No, sir; he's a member of Congress.

The quickest way to make a tall man short is to borrow all the money he has got.

Why is a kiss like scandal. Because it goes from mouth to mouth.

BEDFORD INQUIRER.

BEDFORD, Pa.

Friday Morning, March 2, 1860.

FEARLESS AND FREE."

D. OVER—Editor and Proprietor.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1860,

HON. SIMON CAMERON,

OF PENNSYLVANIA,

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.)

FOR GOVERNOR:

ANDREW G. CURTIN,

OF CENTRE COUNTY.

COL. ANDREW G. CURTIN.

We this day place at our mast-head, the name of Col. ANDREW G. CURTIN, the gentleman selected by the People's State Convention as our candinate for Governor, there to remain till he is triumphantly elected in October. Col. Curtin was our first choice, and the first choice of the People's Party of Bedford County, and we confidently predict that he will receive a majority of her votes, as he is well known to many of our people, from his frequent visits to our Springs, and no man is more admired by them or stands in higher estimation.

Col. Curtin has always been a favorite of the people of Pennsylvania. He has always supported a Tariff for the Protection of our manufacturers, mechanics, farmers and laboring men, he is in favor of the Homestead law, for the purpose of securing to the poor man government land when he settles upon it, instead of its being given to land-jobbers; and he is in favor of keeping slavery out of all Territory that was made free by the Missouri Compromise.

Col. Curtin is one of the best stump-speakers in the State, and will thoroughly canvass it, and will be elected, beyond a doubt, by from 30,000 to 50,000 majority. Let our brethren in Bedford County organize at once, let them go to work in earnest, and do their share of work in this great contest, which will foreshadow the still greater one in November. Pennsylvania will go right in October, she will be right in November, and "as Pennsylvania goes so goes the Union."

The Convention also passed a resolution in favor of Gen. Cameron for the Presidency, and appointed delegates from nearly all the Districts in the State in his favor. Each District will send four Delegates to Chicago. The Delegates from this District are, Francis Jordan from Bedford, Wm. *M*cClellan, from Franklin, D. *M*cCaunaghy, from Adams, and J. J. Patterson from Juniata.

THE DEDICATION

Of the Union School House took place on Friday evening last. There was quite a gathering of our people on the occasion. The meeting was opened by Fr. Jordan, Esq, who introduced the Superintendent of the School, Mr. Dickerson. Mr. D. delivered a clear, comprehensive, and practical speech, on the subject of School matters, and convinced our citizens that our School is in the charge of a gentleman fully competent to discharge his duty. Hon. H. C. Hickok, State Superintendent, was next introduced. He spoke on the subject of education, and common Schools, and stated many facts of great interest to the people of the State. He said that Pennsylvania, instead of being the blind giant that she formerly was, is now foremost in common schools, and that her laws on that subject are sought after and copied by other States. Mr. Hickok is an able lecturer, and although he was laboring under the loss of sleep, and a very hard ride from Hopewell here, that afternoon, he acquitted himself admirably, in a lecture that occupied some two hours in delivery.

The meeting adjourned all well pleased that the new Union School House, (one of the best common school buildings in the State, as stated by Mr. Hickok,) was erected, and that the prospects for a good and cheap education for our children were so flattering.

ROBBERY.—The store of Mrs. Sarah E. Potts, in this place, was entered on Saturday morning last, about 3 o'clock, and twenty-nine dollars taken out of the drawer, in old Spanish quarters and levys. We have not heard of anything else missing. A hole was bored in the door with an auger near the lock, and the bolt drawn back. An alarm was made by Mrs. Potts from the upper window, but before any of the neighbors could get there the thief had fled, leaving an old sun-bonnet in the Store. It is to be hoped that he may be arrested, and an end put to the theiving and robbery which has become quite common in this place of late.

AN OLD AND ESTIMABLE CITIZEN DEPARTED.—We are sorry to record the death of Col. Adam Barnhart of Bedford Township, which took place on the 16th ult. Mr. Barnhart was well and favorably known all over this County, and his departure will be regretted by numerous relatives and friends. I mss te thy manes, old friend!

PEOPLE'S MEETING.

A meeting of the People's Party, assembled in the County Hall, on Monday evening last, for the purpose of placing in nomination a ticket to be supported at the Spring Election. The meeting was very large. Mr. Eben Pennell was appointed President, and Mr. Samuel J. Way, Secretary. After some discussion by Messrs. King, Russell, Barclay and others, the following ticket was placed in nomination:

Chief Burgess,
Samuel L. Russell.
Assistant Burgess,
George R. Oster.
Council,
Samuel Vondersmith,
Thomas M. Lynch.
High Constable,
Alex. Henderson.
Auditor,
Wm. R. King.
Town Clerk,
Adam B. Carn.
Justices of the Peace,
Samuel Radebaugh,
Wm. T. Chapman.
Judge of Election,
Martin Millburn.
Inspector,
John R. Jordan.
Assessor,
Eben Pennell.
Constable,
Milton Spidel.

Hon. Fr. Jordan was then called on, and responded in an eloquent speech. The meeting then adjourned in the best of spirits.

The State Convention.

To the exclusion of almost everything else, to-day, we copy a condensed report of the proceedings of the People's State Convention.—This was one of the largest and most spirited Conventions which ever assembled in this State. Everything came off well, and all the members and others assembled at Harrisburg, felt sure of a glorious victory next fall in both the Gubernatorial and Presidential elections. Hon. Fr. Jordan, of this place was appointed temporary Chairman, and presided with dignity and impartiality.

We will publish the addresses and Gov. Pollock's speech, and possibly others next.

We find the following paragraph in the Washington correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune of the 25th, ult. We will publish the speech when we procure a copy, as we have no doubt it is a good one:

Mr. McPherson of Penna. made a successful debut in the House to-day in a forcible speech, reviewing the course of the Democracy in preventing the organization for two months, and their threats of disunion in the event of a Republican being elected President. He produced a deep impression.

The last Gazette charges 'Squire Oldham, of Union Township, with circulating "Helper's Impending Crisis," on Court Week. We believe the 'Squire was not in town on Court Week, and also that he never saw Helper's work. Will the Gazette correct its falsehood? As is usual with it, we expect not.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the second number of a new paper, published in Cumberland, Md., called "The Bulletin," by E. S. Zevely, Esq., It is independent in politics, and conducted with ability, besides being one of the neatest papers on our exchange list.

PEOPLE'S STATE CONVENTION.

At 12 o'clock the Chairman of the State Central Committee, Hon. Levi Kline, called the Convention to order.

Mr. Purviance. I move you, sir, if it be in order, that Mr. Francis Jordan be temporary chairman.

Mr. Davis. I move that Jno. H. Hampton, of Allegheny county, be substituted.

The Chairman decided that the amendment was not agreed to.

Division called for, and the yeas and nays. The question recurring, shall Mr. Jordan be the temporary chairman, the Chairman, (Mr. Kline) decided in the affirmative, when that gentleman was called to the chair.

The yeas and nays were called by several voices.

A Voice. The house is packed with parties who have no business here, and the only proper way to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion is to call the yeas and nays.

The chairman, pro tempore, Mr. Jordan.—The Chairman of the Central Committee has decided in my favor, and believing so I have taken this position. If this course is acceptable, I shall proceed to the discharge of my duties; if not, I do not wish to force myself upon the meeting.

[Indescribable hubbub and confusion prevailed. Cheers mingled with hisses. Several gentlemen attempted to make themselves heard.]

Mr. Frailey. The Chairman of the State Central Committee has done that which is exceedingly improper. [Applause and a deafening row.] It is a wrong inflicted upon this body to which I for one, cannot subscribe; and for which, perhaps, this Convention will have to suffer.

A division and the yeas and nays were called for, and the choice of a temporary chairman devolves upon the Convention, and not upon the selection of the Chairman of the Central Committee.

A Voice. I am decidedly opposed to having my voice stifled.

A Voice. I rise to a point of order. I submit that the Chairman of the State Central Committee has no power to make a decision.—[A deafening racket.]

Mr. Jordan. I shall undertake the discharge of the duties assigned to me, and I shall endeavor to execute them in such a manner as to demonstrate before I retire that all this trouble is without occasion, and that justice shall be meted out, right and left, without fear, favor or affection. [Prolonged applause and hisses.]

Mr. Mann. This action on part of the persons inside the bar of the House, is a usurpation of power. The business of this Convention should be performed in decency, and in order to accomplish this, the hall should be cleared of all persons but delegates to the Convention. Let us sit down and see each other's faces, and act decently, and with a propriety becoming the responsible duties which lie before us.

A Voice. Let there be a call of the roll.

A Voice. I agree with the gentleman who has just spoken, (Mr. Mann,) that we should proceed in decency and order, but, sir, the yeas and nays and a division has been called, on a question which to my mind, has not been properly decided. In order, therefore, to restore order, let us go back to where we made the mistake, and correct it.

[Outbursts of applause and increased confusion.]

Mr. Coffey. Mr. Chairman, I am unwilling to believe that there has been any unfairness on the part of the Chairman of the State Central Committee, but I move a reconsideration of the vote by which you were said to be elected.

Mr. Martin. I move that all persons not delegates retire, so that parties elected to represent the counties may have a fair hearing.

The Chair. In order to carry out what appears to be the sense of this Convention, I hope that those who are not delegates will retire without the bar of the House, with the exception of the reporters. I would much prefer to be relieved from this embarassment.

A Voice. A motion was made to reconsider, which I hope will be regarded as a test vote.

Another voice. I move that the list of delegates be called over.

Still another. I move that a Secretary be appointed, and that Mr. Rauch, Clerk of the House, call the yeas and nays.

The Chair. Does the Convention agree that Mr. Rauch shall call the yeas and nays?

Agreed to, by acclamation, loud and prolonged.

Mr. Martin. I now insist that every person not a delegate to this Convention, retire until the action of the delegates can be fairly, clearly, intelligently and honestly had.

A Voice. I second the motion.

Hon. Levi Kline then resumed the Chair, and requested all but Delegates to the Convention to retire. Mr. K. then said the question now before the House is the one on which the yeas and nays have been called.

A Voice. My motion was that a reconsideration be taken by a division of the House, and not by the yeas and nays.

Mr. Coffey. Preliminary to that, however, it will be proper that there be a call of the roll.

Mr. Lowrey. Who are the Delegates?—There are disputed seats here, and I should like to know how we are to determine by the yeas and nays.

Mr. Souther. We are precisely in the same category as when the House of Representatives meets. It is under the direction of the Clerk until they proceed to the election of a Speaker.

A Voice. How is it when there are two sets of delegates? Do both vote?

Mr. Souther. Yes, both vote twice, if they please.

[Laughter and applause.]

The Chairman. The question is the reconsideration of the vote electing a chairman.—Those in favor of a reconsideration will vote aye, and those opposed will vote no.

Mr. Marshall. That is, those who are in favor of Jordan will vote no, and those in favor of Hampton will vote aye.

Mr. Martin. I insist as a preliminary essential to the organization of this body in decency, and in order that the floor may be cleared, that the delegates answer to their names on the call of the roll. It is now a town meeting, and not a State Convention, and I regret to say, as much as I coincide in the selection of the gentleman who took the chair, it has assumed the appearance of a mob rather than of a respectable assemblage.

Mr. Frailey. I am one of those who have attended conventions of different characters.

Mr. Marshall. Did you ever attend a general synod of the Covenanter's church? (Laughter.)

Mr. Frailey. There is now no difficulty that I can see. Let us proceed to have a vote.

Mr. Marshall. As the use of this hall has been voted to us by the House of Representatives, I suggest and insist that all persons not delegates be compelled to withdraw.

A Voice. You can't get us out.

Voices. Call the roll, call the roll.

The names of the delegates were then called over.

Of the above delegates sixty three voted in favor of a reconsideration, and seventy three against it.

The convention therefore refused to reconsider the vote had on temporary chairman, and Mr. Jordan was declared duly elected temporary chairman.

Mr. Kline. When the vote was taken by the ayes and noes; it sounded to me that a much larger proportion voted aye, than has just been indicated by the vote polled.

Hon. Francis Jordan then resumed the Chair amidst deafening applause, when he said:

I assure you I feel relieved from the embarrassment with which I was surrounded when I first took the chair. I cannot but congratulate the convention at this relief from what was apparently an inextricable difficulty. It has been accomplished creditably and in such a way I trust as will satisfy every man that we are disposed to do that which is right, and that we are actuated by nothing but proper motives. [Applause.] We have met here to nominate a candidate for Governor, and to take such action with regard to the Presidential election as shall be deemed appropriate. We have it in our power, unless we let it slip, to smite down this thing called Democracy, and we shall be able to perpetuate the principles of our forefathers, and set up a standard around which and under which all the friends of the Constitution and the Union can rally as one man for the welfare of our country.

[Prolonged applause.]

I trust, gentlemen, that we have met here with this patriotic and high purpose, and although there may be differences of opinion amongst us in detail, let us cultivate a spirit of harmony and true patriotism which will enable us to unite all our energies in the good cause, and to triumph in October and November next, as the right ought to triumph. I thank you, gentlemen, for the honor conferred upon me in making me your temporary chairman.

Mr. Souther. I move that a committee of nine be appointed on contested seats.

Mr. Coffey. I move to amend, that a committee of one from each Senatorial district be selected by the delegates from each district respectively, who shall constitute a committee on credentials, and report the names of gentlemen entitled to their seats in this convention.

Mr. M'Clure. I move that a further consideration of this subject be postponed for the present, in order to make a motion, which I believe will be satisfactory to all parties.

Agreed to.

Mr. M'Clure. I now move that the rules governing the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania be adopted for the government of this convention.

Mr. Frailey. So far as they can be applied.

Agreed to.

Mr. Coffey then renewed his amendment to the motion of Mr. Souther.

Mr. Souther. It makes the committee altogether too cumbersome.

Mr. Coffey. I am aware of that, but I believe it to be a fairer method of selecting the committee.

After considerable debate the amendment of Mr. Coffey was negatived, and the original motion prevailed.

Mr. Haldeman moved that a committee of thirty three be appointed by the chair for the purpose of selecting permanent officers of the convention.

Mr. Loyd Jones moved to strike out "by the chair," and insert "that the committee be selected from the several Senatorial districts by the members of the convention." After considerable discussion, the resolution as amended was unanimously agreed to.

A recess was taken for a few minutes, in order to enable the delegates to select a committee for the purpose of designating permanent officers of the convention.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention reassembled at 4 o'clock, P. M.

Mr. Jordan, temporary chairman, called the convention to order.

Mr. Mann, from the committee to select permanent officers, made the following report.

President—Gov. James Pollock.

Vice Presidents—Charles Frailey, James S. Naglee, Andrew T. Preall, Daniel Beitler, Henry Burm, Edward Gratz, Franklin Taylor, Edward Bailey, A. S. Cadwallader, Henry Green, Wm. Yocum, A. W. Leisenring, P. M. Osterhout, Davis Alton, E. L. Baldwin, Abraham Updegraff, Anderson Denius, Wm. B. Irwin, George F. Meily, Joseph Fisher, Samuel J. Henderson, Albert Smyser, A. K. M'Clure, Francis Jordan, Jacob M. Campbell, Joseph R. Smith, Dr. Wm. B. Coulter, Geo. L. Wyley, John M. Kirkpatrick, W. Irwin, Beaver, Thomas J. Brown, Mercer, S. Newton Pettis, A. B. Heichold.

Secretaries—S. B. Row, R. P. Nevin, Jonas Gunnison, Lloyd Jones, John H. Oliver, Wm. A. Hammer, Wm. M. Lloyd, John A. Brown, A. W. Crawford.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the chairman of this committee be requested to secure the services of the Door Keepers of the House of Representatives, to act as Door Keepers during the sittings of this convention.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

Governor Pollock was conducted to the chair, and on assuming his seat, addressed the Convention.

(We will publish the address next week.)

The committee on contested seats made the following report, viz:

The committee selected to determine upon credentials and contested seats, having heard the parties claiming seats in the several districts respectfully report.

That in 1st Senatorial district, Philadelphia, Philip S. White is entitled to the seat.

That in the Chester and Delaware Sentorial District, Mr. Darlington is entitled to the seat.

That in the Clinton, Lycoming, Centre and Union Sentorial district, Mr. G. W. Youngman is entitled to the seat.

That in the Cumberland, Perry, Juniata and Mifflin Senatorial district, Mr. C. S. M'Coy is entitled to the seat.

That in the Westmoreland and Fayette Sentorial District, Gen. C. P. Markle is entitled to the seat.

That in the 5th Representative district of Philadelphia there is no claimant who can take the seat under the rules of the party there.

That in the 31 representative district of Philadelphia, Mr. John R. Orr, is entitled to the seat.

That in the 4th representative district of Philadelphia, Mr. Joseph R. Flanigen is entitled to the seat.

That in the Union, Snyder and Juniata representative district, Mr. Israel Gutelius is entitled to his seat.

After the reading of the report, Mr. KIRKPATRICK moved that A. B. SHARP be substituted for Mr. M'Coy.

After a lengthy debate, the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. BOOTH moved that the blank in the fifth representative district be filled by the name of Joseph Moore.

This led again to a long debate, and after a call of the yeas and nays, the amendment was agreed to, yeas 76, nays 56.

Mr. LOWRY offered the following:

Resolved, That Gen. Simon Cameron is hereby declared the candidate of the People's party of Pennsylvania, for President of the United States, subject to the decision of the Chicago Convention.

This resolution was discussed by Messrs. White, and Nevin, in the opposition, and Mr. Mumma in the affirmative.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention met at eight o'clock. The Hall was again so densely crowded that it was almost impossible to gain access.

The President, Gov. POLLOCK, called the Convention to order, and informed the Convention that he had received the following letters which were read, and the respective names were placed on the list of delegates:

HARRISBURG, Feb. 22d, 1860.

To the President of the Peoples' Convention:

Dear Sir:—Business engagements require my immediate attention at home, consequently as a delegate from Clinton county, I hereby depute and substitute B. RUSH PETRIKIN to act in my place and stead. With respect,

SOBIESKI ROSS.

COUDERSPORT, Feb. 20th, 1860.

To the President and Delegates of the Republican Convention for the State of Pennsylvania, to assemble in Harrisburg, on the 22d day of February, 1860:

Gentlemen.—I have substituted G. B. OVERTON Esq., of Coudersport, Potter county, to act in my place as one of the Representative delegates from the counties of Tioga and Potter, to your Convention. Respectfully,

The motion to postpone the resolution offered by Mr. LOWRY, just before the adjournment, being again before the Convention.

The resolution was further discussed, and was finally passed by the following vote, viz:

YEAS—Messrs. Booth, Baldwin, Brown, (Judge,) Billingfelt, Beitler, Brown, John A. Campbell, Coffey, Coulter, Colwell, Crawford, Coggshall, Denius, Davis, Filler, Frailey, Fisher, Fougeray, Gehr, Graham, Gunnison, Gutelius, Green, Gibson, Haldeman, Hampton, Hale, Heichhold, Haines, (Kirk,) Henderson, Hammer, Hall, Irwin, W. W., Irwin, W. B., Irwin, Philip, Jordan, Jones, W. K., Ketcham, Keller, Kirkpatrick, Koonts, Lawrence, Dr., Lowrey, Lloyd, Leisenring, Lawrence, Geo. V., Mercur, Myer, Miller, J. G., McCoy, N., Meiley, Markle, M'Connaughey, Mull, Maclay, R. P., Mumma, Miller, J. B., Oliver, Osterhout, Palmer, Purviance, Pettis, Petriken, Pollock, Rowe, R. F., Row, S. B., Riblet, Sharpe, Souther, Shryock, Scofield, Simons, Smith, Smyser, Teller, Updegraff, Wood, Worth, Williston, Work, Wells, Wilson, Youngman.—89.

NAYS—Messrs. Armstrong, Baker, Bailey, Bradshaw, Baird, Boom, Colder, Carnahan, Cadwallader, Clingan, Flanigan, Gardner, Gratz, Hempstead, Hitner, Haines, W. C., Jones, Loyd, Laubach, Mann, Maxwell, Marshall, M'Clure, Martin, Negely, Nevin, Overton, Orr, Prizer, Puleston, Preall, Pratt, Penniman, Roberts, Read, Shouss, Triol, White, Wyley, Yocum, Ziegler.—39.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

The resolution as adopted reads:

Resolved, That Gen. Simon Cameron is hereby declared the candidate of the People's party of Pennsylvania for President of the United States subject to the decision of the Chicago Convention.

The adoption of the resolution was received with applause, notwithstanding the President of the Convention requested the audience not to express any feeling.

After the reading of the amendment Mr. Mumma moved that the Convention do now adjourn, which motion was agreed to.

The Convention then adjourned at half past ten till nine o'clock on Thursday morning.

THURSDAY, Feb. 23, 1860.

The Convention re-assembled in the Hall of the House of Representatives at nine o'clock, A. M., agreeable to adjournment, and was called to order by the President.

The following resolutions were then adopted.

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed by the chair to prepare an address and resolutions—also to report the names of eight Sentorial delegates to the National Convention, to be held in Chicago, in June next, and the names of two persons for Sentorial Electors, and that the delegates from the different congressional districts report to the Convention, the names of four persons from each congressional district, who shall be the representative delegates to the National Convention, and one from each district as Elector.

Provided, That in the district where the delegates are already elected, such delegates be accepted by this convention.

Provided further, That where the Congressional districts represented in this Convention decline to present the name of any delegate to Chicago, in those districts, the election of delegates to the National Convention at Chicago shall be referred to the people.

Resolved, That the delegates from this State, appointed by this Convention, to the National Convention are hereby instructed to cast the vote of the State as a unit, and to vote for Gen. Cameron while his name remains before that body.

On the adoption of the resolution, the yeas and nays were called which resulted as follows:

YEAS.—128. NAYS.—4.

When the President announced the result, it was received with deafening applause.

The President announced the committee on resolutions, &c., as follows:

Messrs. Lowry, Hale, Purviance, Booth, Palmer, Ketcham, Lawrence and Penniman.

A motion was again made to adjourn. Not agreed to—voted down by a large majority.

Mr. Marshal then renewed his motion to proceed to the nomination of candidates for Governor; which was agreed to; nominations were then made as follows:

Mr. DAVIS nominated Thomas M. Howe, of Allegheny county.

Mr. COFFEY nominated John Covode, of Westmoreland county.

Mr. PETRIKEN nominated A. G. Curtin, of Center county.

Mr. FILLER nominated Samuel Calvin, of Blair county.

Mr. TAYLOR nominated Townsend Haines, of Chester county.

Mr. BOOTH nominated David Taggart, of Northumberland county.

Mr. FISHER nominated Levi Kline, of Lebanon county.

Mr. MILLER nominated Henry K. Strong, of Philadelphia.

Mr. HAINES nominated Lemuel Todd, of Cumberland county.

Mr. KETCHAM nominated Geo. W. Scranton, of Luzerne county.

On motion, the nominations closed.

BALLOT FOR GOVERNOR.

Mr. Covode received	22	votes.
Mr. Curtin do	56	"
Mr. Howe do	13	"
Mr. Calvin do	5	"
Mr. Haines do	5	"
Mr. Taggart do	16	"
Mr. Kline do	12	"
Mr. Scranton do	4	"

On motion, the Convention proceeded to a second vote, as follows:

On the second ballot, Mr. Curtin received 74 votes, Mr. Covode 27, Mr. Taggart 11, Mr. Howe 10, Mr. Kline 7, Mr. Haines 4, Mr. Calvin 1.

The President then announced that
Mr. Curtin had received	74	votes.
Mr. Covode " "	27	"
Mr. Howe " "	10	"
Mr. Calvin " "	1	"
Mr. Haines " "	4	"
Mr. Taggart " "	11	"
Mr. Kline " "	7	"

The announcement was received with deafening shouts of applause, and Andrew G. Curtin was declared duly nominated as the candidate for Governor.

Mr. Booth now moved that the nominations be declared unanimous, which was responded to by renewed cheering and applause.

Committees were then appointed to inform Col. Curtin of his nomination, and also to inform Gen. Cameron of the resolution passed in his favor.

MARRIED.

On the 16th ult., by the Rev. Samuel Yingling, Mr. MOSES CRISMAN, of St. Clair, to Miss MARY AKE, of Union Township Bedford County.

On the 23d ult., by Rev. R. F. Sample, Mr. WM. WELSH, of Youngstown, Ohio, to Miss CAMILA LEADER of Bedford.

DIED.

On the 19th ult., Miss AMANDA E., eldest daughter of Mr. George D. and Mary Shuck, aged twelve years, 6 months and twenty two days.

"Whom the Gods love die young."

Alas! a pensive sadness steals o'er the spirit when we behold the garland of friendship blasted by the untimely approach of death, as in his iron grasp, he severs the tender links, and bears away its loveliest blossom.

The subject of this notice was a lovely, amiable and intelligent child. Being blest with a pious example and instruction, we need not wonder that she early learned to look upon the pomp and vanities of the world as unworthy her attention. Though surrounded by the temptations and allurements of the world she heeded them not, prefering that pleasure and happiness that proceeds from a performance of duty towards God.

It was with agonized hearts that her parents traced the rapid progress of disease in their idolized child; she was to them as the light of their eyes. Her presence brought sunshine to their souls, and they looked forward to many happy years in her society. But God has willed otherwise, and though their hearts are bowed and oppressed with grief, yet should they remember "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth."

To her death had no terror, and though the grave was dark and gloomy, yet all beyond was bright and joyous.

She is gone. Yet in imagination we see that fair unsullied cheek, and the clear and dreaming eye whose brightness and winning glances, spoke of a soul of love, and beauty. She is laid to rest in the freshness of early feeling, while her young heart throbbed with brightest hopes. She is gone like a morning cloud and the early dew. Her bosom is cold, which once with love was warm. She has passed away while her thoughts were as pure as the upper sky, and as sweet as an opening blossom. She is laid to rest in the voiceless tomb, and the cold damp dew of the grave is glistening on her youthful brow. The clod of the valley has thrown back its last harsh echo as it fell upon the lid of her cell. She is in deep dreamless sleep. Her spirit too pure and lovely for earth, now with folded pinions is safely lodged in the palace of angels and God.

"And a new harp is strung, and a new song is given
To the breezes that float o'er the garden of Heaven."

Dec. 10th, 1859, ELLIE DAUGHERTY, aged 3 years, 10 months; and Feb. 1st, 1860, MARY WATSON, aged 4 days; daughters of Maj. S. H. and Virginia Tate.

Thus within two short months, has the hand of the reaper Death swept o'er the garden of an unbroken family circle, and nipped two sweet buds, one at that age, the most interesting of human life, when the infant intellect begins to unfold itself, in all the ingenuous thought, and artless prattle, and attractive endearment of childhood; binding itself to the parent, by those strong tendrils of fond, precious recollection, so hard to sever; the other a little cherub, just born to earth that it might be an heir of heaven.

If it be true, (and who will doubt it?) that the happiest of earth, are those who die early, comforted ought the bereft parents be, that their litle fold has furnished two, bright, happy spirits, for the world of bliss above. What e'er of good or ill betide the living, two lambs are safe in the Good Shepherd's bosom.

Never to know
How sorrow's blight may grow
On mortal ground;
Never to know,
How all we trust below
May wound. C. N. H.

MOFFAT'S Vegetable Life Medicines.

A mild yet effectual medicine, composed of the best material known to medical science, for the cleansing of the alimentary canal and relieving the springs and avenues of life of all morbid obstructions and impurities, must be a public blessing and a domestic and individual protection and safeguard, in proportion as it becomes known. Such a medicine the families of the United States have long had in MOFFAT'S CELEBRATED LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS, and the good they have done is inestimable. They have won their high fame and firmly established character by their virtues alone, without the aid of the usual arts of notority or impudent experiment on the faith of the credulous.

In all general derangments of the digestive and alimentary functions, as well as in a vast variety of acute and chronic diseases, their effects are prompt and complete as to excite astonishment.

In rheumatism, settled pain in the organs and limbs, costiveness, piles, liver complaints, jaundice, nervous and bilious attacks, headaches, fever and ague, eruptive diseases, bad aspect of the complexion, indigestion and flatulency, cholics, affections of the bladder and kidneys, dropsy, asthma and bronchitis, rheumatic colds and sore throats, and indeed in almost every conceivable kind of ill health they are invaluable, and will afford certain, and most generally permanent relief. They require neither confinement nor change of diet—they neither prostrate the strength nor give pain—and a more delightful and effectual medicine cannot be procured either for individuals or families.

The proprietor has received for many years and is continually receiving the most fervent and grateful testimonials of their value. Prepared and sold by DR. WM. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, and also by the agents.

Special Notice to Agents.

G. G. EVANS, having purchased the stereotype plates, copyright, etc., of the "Prince of the House of David," "Pillar of Fire," &c., would call the attention of agents to these truly valuable Works.

The "Prince of the House of David," is one of the most popular and best-selling books ever published. Over 180,000 copies have been sold, and it bids fair to rival the "Pilgrim's Progress," or any other similar work.

The "Pillar of Fire," by the same author, is now meeting with a rapid sale, over 90,000 copies have been sold since its publication, and as a companion to the "Prince of the House of David," every reader of that book should purchase a copy.

The "Records of the Revolutionary War," is a book of great interest, and gives a vast amount of information relative to the Soldiers of the Revolution, and is an invaluable book of reference for the descendents of its heroes and all who are interested in Pension Claims, Land Warrants, &c.

The most liberal inducements are offered to Agents, and upon addressing the publisher every information will be given.

BEDFORD CLASSICAL INSTITUTE.

Rev. John Lyon,
T. Lyttleton Lyon, A. M., } Principals.

THE Spring session of this Institution, will open on Friday the 17th February, 1860. It is desirable that all students should enter at the commencement of the Quarter, and no pupil will be received for less than one quarter.

It is the design of the Principals to make this Academy in all respects a first class Institution for the thorough instruction of youth of both sexes and to prepare them for any profession or position in life.

The high moral and scientific tone of the school is well known to this community. A strict discipline will be enforced.

A few boys (the number is limited to ten) will be received into the family of the Principals as boarders.

The beauty of the scenery and the salubrity of the climate render Bedford a most desirable location of such a school.

Persons from abroad, visiting the springs, will be near their children during the summer season.

TERMS: $200 per year, including boarding, washing, fuel, lights and tuition in all the branches.

TERMS FOR DAY SCHOLARS PER QUARTER. $6, English branches, $7,50 Classical do. &c.

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER,

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous Diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes,
Old, Stubborn Ulcers,	Scald Head.
Tetter affections,	Rheumatic Disorders,
Dyspepsia,	Costiveness.
Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial Diseases,	General Debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 21st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford County, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Blakney, of Enderton, Armstrong county, Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carrolltown Cambria county, Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind, then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to
Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.
We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:
THE VERMIFUGE,
For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.
THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of FEVER AND AGUE,
preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.
As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.
Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors, to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS. Pittsburgh, Pa

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros. will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros. Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

A MAP OF BEDFORD COUNTY.
I PROPOSE to make a directory Map of Bedford County from actual surveys, if a sufficient number of subscribers can be raised to warrant the undertaking.
The map will show the location of all the citizens, and also their places of business such as stores, Post Offices, Hotels, Manufacturing establishments, Grist Mills, Saw Mills, Shops, &c., also the location of all the public roads, boundary lines, streams, mountains, &c.
Maps of all the towns and large villages will be put on the same sheet, also statistical tables of the County, and (if taken in time) the census of 1860.

PERMANENT OFFICE.
Complying with the urgent request of hundreds of their patients,
Drs. C. M. Fitch and J. W. Sykes
HAVE CONCLUDED TO REMAIN
PERMANENTLY IN PITTSBURGH,
And may be consulted at their office,
NO. 190 PENN STREET,
Opposite St. Clair Hotel PITTSBURGH.

AND may be consulted daily, (except Sundays,) for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all other CHRONIC COMPLAINTS complicated with or causing pulmonary disease, including Catarrh, Heart Disease, Affection of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Female Complaints, etc.

DRS. FITCH & SYKES would state that their treatment of consumption is based upon the fact that the disease exists in the blood and system at large, both before and during its development in the lungs, and they therefore employ Mechanical, Hygienic and Medicinal remedies to purify the blood and strengthen the system. With these they use MEDICAL INHALATIONS, which they value highly, but only as Palliatives, (having no curative effect when used alone,) and invalids are earnestly cautioned against wasting the precious time of curability upon any treatment based upon the plausible, but false idea that the "seat of disease can be reached in a direct manner by Inhalation." For as before stated, the seat of the disease is in the blood and its effects only in the lungs.

☞No charge for consultation.
A list of questions will be sent to those wishing to consult us by letter.
